Dear Mr. Brandon:

In Mr. Dulles' absence from the city I want to thank you for your letter of April 26th enclosing the letter addressed to Mr. Dulles by Senator Clark which was inadvertently sent to you.

You are indeed correct in presuming that Senator Clark's letter to you was misdirected to Mr. Dulles. I am enclosing your letter herewith. I am also returning the clippings from Congressional Record as they too were enclosed in the envelope addressed to Mr. Dulles.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Executive Officer

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Having been good enough to ask me for a copy of my speech before the American Municipal Association in Boston at Chalmers Roberts' dinner party the other night, I am now going to presume upon your good nature to look also at a speech I made about the Budget in the Senate and a contre-temps I had with the Wall Street Journal recently.

I enjoyed our discussion very much the other night and hope that our paths may cross soon again.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Joe Clark".

HENRY BRANDON
WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT

April 26, 1959.

Mr Allen W. Dulles,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
2430 E Street,
Washington D.C.

Dear Mr Dulles,

I am enclosing a letter Senator Clark addressed to you, but by error was enclosed in the envelop sent to me. I presume you received the letter destined for me. In order to save the senator embarassment and further correspondence and his secretary to swallow twice I am forwarding the letter and the cutting from the Congressional Record which may not have been included in "my letter" directly to you.

As always in your company, it was a most interesting evening.

Yours very sincerely,

Henry Brandon
